Test report of the examination of the:

LPG components
LPG Filter type 92

Tested and examined to:

Regulation 67-01 Uniform provisions concerning the approval of specific equipment of motor vehicles using liquefied petroleum gases in their propulsion system.

The construction of the LPG filter type 92 is based on the approved gas valve type 07 because of this there is no need for any additional test. This report should be used in conjunction with Gastec report 120461/1/3.
